

Give students a truly global perspective

Designed to support the student completing an assignment, the instructor crafting a course outline and the librarian promoting information literacy, Gale In Context knowledge portals represent a new, exciting online experience.

This family of resources engages and motivates users while promoting true collaboration between faculty, students and librarians. Only Gale In Context combines authoritative full-text reference from Gale and its premier partners with highly relevant, dynamically updated multimedia content. Sophisticated design and functionality help students move beyond information retrieval to discover, evaluate and apply information using 21st century skills.

► Scope and depth

Global Issues in Context spans continents and cultures to bring essential, balanced information to researchers across many academic disciplines. Integrating news, global viewpoints, reference, country information, primary source documents, videos, statistics and more in a single search, Global Issues in Context not only focuses on broad issues such as poverty, global warming and nuclear proliferation, it also prompts a close appraisal of targeted issues, including the North Korea/South Korea conflict and the 2010 Gulf oil spill.

► Access primary sources and full-text references:

- Dictionary of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict
- International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences, 2nd Ed.
- History of World Trade Since 1450
- And hundreds more reliable titles

► Integrated multimedia includes:

- Interactive Google Map that allows searching or browsing by topic/issue, country or region
- Videos and audio clips from NPR, NBC and more
- Statistics and charts with data that can be downloaded and manipulated
- Full-text periodicals and journals including African Review of Business and Technology, Asia Today International, International Trade Forum and hundreds more English-language international periodicals

► Spotlight feature: Customization

Create the portal page that works best for your researchers. The customization feature allows academic journals to be moved to the top of the page.

► Premier portals support scholarly needs

Gale In Context is the result of user input and a study of research processes. Our findings revealed that students prefer resources that combine web-like functionality with high-quality information. To help students streamline their efforts and identify the most relevant content, we created eye-catching, engaging portals that seamlessly integrate authoritative full-text reference from Gale and its partners with media-rich, curriculum-aligned content that spans core subjects and 21st century themes.

Gale In Context resources:

- Engage and motivate learners with a web-like experience that promotes information discovery
- Facilitate collaboration among librarians, students and faculty in fostering skills like critical thinking and information literacy
- Deliver helpful topic pages and enhanced search results to streamline the research process

► Technology enhances the discovery experience

Gale In Context knowledge portals deliver authoritative content complemented by intuitive features:

- Content organized by type (primary source, reference, multimedia and more)
- RSS feeds automatically deliver information to students
- Related Portals and websites aid discovery of other relevant content
- On-demand text translation into 8 languages accommodates diverse populations
- ReadSpeaker text-to-speech technology supports differentiated learning and those with impaired vision
- MLA7 and APA6 citation tools facilitate understanding of proper use of copyrighted material
- Educator Resources including country-specific curriculum standards
- Tools to download, print, email and share online encourage collaboration
