

International Research Centers Directory

Now online on Gale Directory Library

Now Available International Research Centers Directory is the most current and comprehensive resource on government, university and independent nonprofit research organizations in more than 150 countries. Research is broadly defined to include fundamental, applied and developmental studies as well as data gathering, analysis and synthesis activities outside the United States. The directory lists and describes nonprofit research institutes, centers, operating foundations, laboratories, bureaus, experiment stations and other similar research facilities.

These nonprofit research organizations cover all fields of endeavor, including government and public affairs; physical and earth sciences; environment and conservation; business and economics; medicine and life sciences; religion; engineering and technology; social sciences; humanities; and many others. Detailed entries typically include: name; full contact information, including address, phone, fax, Web site URL and e-mail address; date founded; description of activities; annual budget and revenue; number of staff; financial support; research focus; resources; databases and publications; educational activities; annual meetings; scholarships and awards offered; memberships; library holdings; names of officers and administrators; and more.

Real-world applications might include:

- Business professionals can identify cutting-edge technology research centers around the globe and quickly compile a list of detailed contact information
- Graduate students can compile a list of research centers that focus on specific subjects and provide educational opportunities
- Medical professionals can easily locate international research centers and identify their resources and publications
- And many others

ABOUT GALE DIRECTORY LIBRARY

With Gale Directory Library, researchers can use state-of-the-art functionality to perform a range of data sorting, filtering and exporting. These innovative features, unlike anything seen previously from our directories, make Gale Directory Library the essential tool for research.

- Find contacts — Finding a company, person, publication (or other kind of entity) is easy. Basic search lets users quickly look up names, search by keyword, and browse the full text of your directory holdings.
- Generate lists, analyze trends — Export search results and use them in programs like Excel or Word, making the creation of mailing lists a snap.
- Cross-searchable — Search across our growing number of directory titles. Each directory can be searched individually by its own unique data fields, or search the entire directory collection.
